

Benefits for Program Membership

Resources for Public Policy and Systems Advocacy	Members receive legislative and policy updates and action alerts about Georgia and national issues impacting adults and children exposed to domestic violence. Through participation in GCADV's Public Policy Task Force, members help to craft and drive GCADV's policy agenda. GCADV also advances the interests of survivors and member programs through direct advocacy with legislators, funders, and systems that work with survivors and their children.
News You Can Use	In addition to the monthly publication, Georgia Advocate e-News, members receive the exclusive benefit of GCADV Weekly Informational e-Blasts to inform you of funding sources, trainings, scholarships and current issues impacting DV work in Georgia.
Education, Membership and Advocacy Materials	FREE brochures and promotional items are provided to members. With GCADV approval, members can receive permission to use GCADV's logo on your organization's brochures.
Networking and Resource Sharing	Members receive exclusive access to GCADV's executive director listserv—a private email group where executive directors share resources and provide support to one another regarding common issues for operating a domestic violence program.
Trainings and Meetings	FREE and reduced fee state-wide trainings, webinars and on-line trainings are provided on a variety of topics related to domestic violence advocacy, leadership and governance. Members attend quarterly membership meetings to network and learn about the DV movement in Georgia and beyond.
Specialized Advocacy and Technical Assistance	Members receive information and technical assistance from GCADV staff that specialize in economic justice, reaching underserved communities, technology advocacy, health care, advocacy for people with disabilities, Deaf advocacy, pet advocacy and more.
Georgia's DV Research and Statistics	GCADV provides members with the latest research and statistics related to the statewide hotline, fatalities and trends in the movement.
